

CHINA AFRAID OF FOREIGNERS.

Peking Makes Heroic Arrangements With Banks.

Goes the Limit to Keep Out the Lysa-Eyed Powers.

Manchu and Rebel Alike Are Sharing Mingivings.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Determined to avoid giving any pretext for foreign intervention for financial reasons, the Chinese government has ordered all receipts from maritime customs, including the 1911 Boxer indemnities, to be deposited with the foreign banks to the credit of China's foreign debtors.

The special explanation of the purpose of the Chinese government to live up to its foreign obligations came to the State Department today from the Chinese delegation which reported to the State Department. It reads:

"On account of the disturbances throughout China, the postponement of the date for the November payment of the Boxer indemnities has become necessary. Immediately upon the formation of the new Cabinet by the Premier, Yuan Shi Kai, he gave special attention to the indemnity matters."

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.
The Inspector-General of the Imperial Maritime Customs of China, who is an Englishman, has been directed by the Chinese government to issue general instructions to the customs officers at the various ports to deposit all the receipts from the maritime customs with the foreign banks located in these ports. The money is to be deposited to the credit of the Chinese government.

Personal conferences today between the Secretaries of State, War and Navy, gave the Chinese situation under discussion, but no statement was vouchsafed. The military authorities are ready to meet any reasonable demand for troops to be used in China and whether the organization selected will be the Fifteenth Infantry, now en route from Guam to Manila, or the Twenty-third Infantry, which will be sent from the Philippines to the Philippines.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY.
If these are wanted immediately, then the date of the November payment of the Boxer indemnities will be postponed. If there is an emergency and there is reasonable ground to believe that the Chinese government will not prevent the landing of troops for a fortnight, then the Chinese government will pay the Boxer indemnities, due in Manila about December 1.

It is intimated at the State Department that it will be for the government to send a military mission to China to determine whether troops are needed or not, and if so, when and what number of troops should be sent. The Chinese government is expected to make a decision on this matter by the end of the month.

ADVANCE OF REBELS.
Advances of the rebel forces, both naval and land, toward Nanking, where it is expected a decisive battle will be fought, were reported to the Navy Department today by Rear Admiral McDougall, commander of the United States Asiatic fleet.

Several reports were received that had been lying at Chinkiang, he reported, killed today toward Nanking, determined to assist in the operations against the rebel forces. About 20,000 rebel troops are now marching toward the scene of the expected battle. The majority of these troops are reported to be well drilled. The reports state that the city probably will be defended.

Great Britain, Germany and Japan have a vessel at Nanking and these, together with the American vessels there, are deemed sufficient to give adequate protection to foreign interests. The United States torpedo boat destroyer Barry and the cruiser Albatross reached Nanking and relieved the USS Oregon, which went to Shanghai. The torpedo boat Albatross left for Hankow, making stops at river ports on the way.

RESIGNED TO HIS FATE.
Young Beattie, awaiting the final blow, is anxious to have it over with.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
RICHMOND (Va.), Nov. 22.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., the young wife murderer, today received the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He professed religion and told his spiritual advisers he faced the unknown with equanimity.

Although Beattie is subdued in demeanor, the wonderful nerve that has kept him from succumbing to the condemned man has not deserted him.

That Beattie is now resigned to his fate, is proved by a remark to his guard today when the suggestion was made that Gov. Mann might grant a reprieve at the eleventh hour.

"Let us get it over with," Beattie is reported to have said. "If it has to be the sooner it is ended the better."

The elder Beattie late today paid a secret visit to Gov. Mann in a final effort to gain the Governor's interference.

Instructions have been sent to the jury in the death chamber Friday morning. Under the law the witnesses must present themselves at the prison before 7 o'clock on that morning.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Postmasters have been appointed in Arizona as follows: Hugh H. Bellinger, Feldman; Charles H. Dickinson, Lough.

Mrs. Jack Bonavita Would Be Divorced.

Special Correspondence of The Times.
TRENTON (N. J.) Nov. 22.—The end of one of the most famous romances of recent years was foreshadowed yesterday when papers in an action for divorce were served in Trenton, N. J., on Captain Jack Bonavita, the famous "Red" leader. The suit has been filed by his wife, who was the Princess de Montigny, formerly the wife of Duc d'Artois, of France, and who also bears the hereditary title of Comtesse de Montigny-Artois in the peerage of Austria.

Few of the friends of Captain Bonavita, whose real name is John Frederick Genter, had suspected that he and his wife were involved in domestic strife.

Press Agent.

CALLS WU A TRIUMPH OF AMERICAN REPORTER.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ATLANTA (Ga.) Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Wu Tingfang, twice Chinese Minister to the United States and at present holding a post in the provisional rebel government of China, is a faker, according to William T. Ellis, original traveler who is visiting Atlanta. "Wu is a monument to the efficiency of the American newspaper reporter," said Ellis. "He has been press agent since taken to a post in the provisional rebel government of China, and if justice were done he would give fat jobs to at least half a dozen newspaper men."

"When Wu first came to America in the days of China's seclusion, when he would not waste a first-class train seat on a journey to one of the foreign countries, he made a bargain with a Washington reporter to stand for all sorts of write-ups and interviews. He found that the press of a guileless orient who went about asking questions about women's eyes."

Times says that China's failure to pay monthly interest on the Anglo-American loan need not cause anxiety. The half-yearly coupon is not due until April, and all loans secured by the maritime customs are being paid punctually. The revolutionists are as anxious as the government to avoid foreign interference and are attempting to hinder the collection of the customs revenues.

Chinese Students Rebel.
DENVER, Nov. 22.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Fourteen Chinese students at the Golden School of Mines have received notice from the Chinese legation in Washington that the disruption of the Manchurian government makes it necessary to discontinue payments from the Boxer indemnities to the students for their education. The students have but $100 among them.

Would Avenge for Rebels.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Tom Gunn, one of the few Chinese so far as known who operates an aeroplane, is in San Francisco negotiating with revolutionary leaders to send him to China to help fight the Manchus. Gunn is an ardent rebel and says he is eager to aid duty in his flying machine. He uses an aeroplane of his own construction.

Rebels Hold Their Own.
HANKOW, Nov. 22.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) The rebels are holding their own on the banks of the Han River. Sharp fighting and bombardment are continuing. The revolutionary forces are now awaiting the fall of Nanking, which will permit the fleet to come to their assistance. In such event the imperial forces certainly will not be able to hold Station Khamet-Two, which can be covered easily from the river.

RUNS DOWN TWO CHILDREN.
Cincinnati Fire Marshal En Route to Blame Where Men Were Hurt Fatally Injures the Toddlers.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 22.—Two children were fatally injured, and a number of men were seriously hurt when a fire engine ran down a group of children on the sidewalk in front of the city hall.

The two children, Thomas Schall, aged 7, and his brother, Walter, aged 5, were sitting on the sidewalk when a fire engine's bumper dashed by. The engine was en route to the city hall.

Two hundred employees were in the building when the fire started and the flames filled the exits in such a short time that only a few employees were able to escape from the building through the fire escape.

BAR WOMEN FROM JURIES.

Attorney-General of California Holds That They Can Not Serve.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—Atty.-Gen. U. S. Webb, in an opinion issued today, ruled against women serving as jurors in this State, the question having been raised as a result of the success of the suffrage constitutional amendment. "Under the common law," said Webb, "a jury consisted of twelve free and lawful men and under the same law women were not eligible to jury duty. I think our code did not change the common law rule. It has been apparently thought by some that the adoption of the constitutional amendment extending the right of suffrage to women in some manner has affected the question of eligibility for jury service. I do not so understand it."

LONDON SUFFRAGETTES.

dispersed into small groups, who mixed with the crowds. While the police kept the crowds moving, stones were thrown and the throwers rarely captured. The government offices in White Hall were bombarded, the National Liberal Club on the other hand was shot at with bricks, many lower windows being broken, and the telegraph office in the Strand attacked. Somewhat more than 100 persons were saved from great damage by its stout walls.

Many of the suffragettes rode in motor cars and kept up a hail of stones from their vehicles. Newspaper offices a mile from the houses of Parliament received a share of their attentions.

Chaos reigned nearly all provided with grips containing a change of clothing in anticipation of a long stay in jail. Several were committed for trial but were released on bail.

A procession of women entered and left the prisoners' enclosure throughout the day. White-haired women alternated with girls, while groups of smartly dressed women followed by women of the industrial classes in cheap attire.

Among the more prominent prisoners were Vera Westworth and Cecilia Wilton, who were held there for trial at the sessions. Ada Wright, previously convicted, who was sentenced to a month in jail without the option of a fine, and Mrs. Arnelie Bennett, who went to jail for a week rather than pay a fine for breaking a window.

Kathleen Houston, who had been in similar trouble before, was sentenced to a month in jail.

INSURGENTS WILL HELP.

Serve Notice They Will Support Any Democratic Bill to Abolish the Court of Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "If Democrats will insist on abolishing the Court of Commerce, the insurgent Republicans will help them to pass it," said one of the leading insurgent Senators today.

An understanding has been reached by the insurgents as to the course to be pursued in connection with legislation looking to the abolition of the court, which was created as the express wish of President Taft.

For a week there have been rumors, and occasionally statements, coming from no inspired source, that the Congress is in danger of assault by the allied forces of democracy and insurgency.

No insurgent Senator, however, would speak directly on the subject, but one of their chiefs has revealed the plan to put down the commerce judges from their seats, although the insurgents and Democrats know that the President with his veto power can keep them sitting.

Extending the Patrol to the Arizona Line.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 22.—What is believed to be the extension of the patrol of the Mexican border, already inaugurated in Texas, to Arizona is forecast today by the ordering of the second squadron of the Sixth United States Cavalry, stationed at Ft. Huachuca, to Warren, Ariz.

This squadron will leave tomorrow and arrive at Warren Saturday morning, where they will go into camp.

From the fact that arrangements are being made to keep the cavalry troop at Warren for some time, it is believed the order for the movement of the troops came from Washington, and not from the post commander.

As Warren is the most available jumping ground between Naco and Douglas, the cavalry there would be in a position to reach any point on the international boundary in Arizona in a comparatively short time.

every ford and possible crossing to prevent filibustering from the American side. The Fourth United States Cavalry and the Texas State Rangers are also keeping a close watch on this side until any further attempts to smuggle arms across has been given up.

Madero is no longer the idol of Chihuahua hearts. His effort in behalf of Pino Suarez for the vice-presidency against Dr. Vasquez Gomez has turned the people against him. This was demonstrated Monday when the first celebration of the outbreak of the revolution was held in Chihuahua. A drunken youth, yelled "Viva Reyes." He was promptly mobbed and dragged to jail by the gendarmes. The crowd of Reyesistas then formed in the streets and marched through the principal business streets shouting "Viva Reyes" and "Death to Madero."

FOREIGN CLUB OF AMERICANS STONED.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 22.—The Foreign Club at Chihuahua was stoned by a mob during the celebration of the anniversary of Madero's revolution. The library widow was broken by bricks, which fell in among several members of the club sitting in the room.

The Chihuahua Foreign Club, one of the largest in Mexico, is regarded by most Mexicans as the visible evidence of the civil American commercial supremacy in the northern portion of their country.

During the rebellion against President Diaz last winter, the more violent of the partisans of the then existing regime, most of them officeholders, declared repeatedly that the club was a hotbed of seditious Americans.

With the inauguration of the Madero administration the club is again an unwelcome sight in the eyes of many Mexicans, but for another reason. The peons and even many of the semi-educated classes, despite Madero's declarations to the contrary, believed that the overthrow of Diaz would be succeeded by the expulsion of Americans who held practically all of the important railroad, mining and commercial positions, and the filling of their places by natives of the country.

The attack on the club comes as a climax to months of muttered threats.

TROOPS IN READINESS FOR FIRST OUTBREAK.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
LAREDO (Tex.) Nov. 22.—Officers returned to Laredo today with fifty horses they had seized at a ranch near Aguilar in this county, on the charge that they were held there for use by persons preparing to engage in a revolt in Mexico.

From a train arriving here today, it was learned that at Lampazos, seventy miles south, an important Mexican station, where 100 soldiers are stationed, a train is being ready to transport troops to the border on short notice.

Governor to Name Richardson State Printer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is stated by those close to the Governor that the long contest for the position of Superintendent of Public Printing, made vacant by the resignation of W. W. Shannon, has at last been decided in favor of Richard W. Richardson, the editor of the Berkeley Gazette, who was Shannon's defeated opponent in the primaries. The Governor had from the first favored Richardson, not so much because he was the Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate, a year and a half ago, as that he is the president of the State Editorial Association, and in a position to help the Governor with the country press.

Richardson's appointment was bitterly opposed in fact by some of the leaders, close to the Governor. It was urged against him that he was not really an insurgent, and that recently he had been the local insurgent ticket in Berkeley, supporting Stitt Wilson, Socialist, for Mayor. Wilson being elected.

The anti-Richardson faction supported R. L. Telfer of San Jose for the position. There were several other candidates urged upon the Governor, but Telfer and Richardson were the only two seriously considered. Richardson's supposed pull with the country press won out for him.

The other day a messenger from the Governor's office demanded a copy of the pay roll of the State printing house, and it is well understood that the successor to Shannon will be required to take orders from higher up in regard to the revision of the pay roll. The number of employees is large, and they are at the mercy of the superintendent.

WATER, FAMINE CLOSES SCHOOLS.

Teachers and Pupils Alike in Seattle Enjoy a Holiday Because Floods Ruined the Feed Pipes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE (Wash.) Nov. 22.—Because of the water famine, the public schools today dismissed teachers and pupils until Monday, and the county and Federal courts adjourned until Monday. The water famine is being relieved, but normal conditions will not prevail until Friday.

Conditions in the flood-swept country are rapidly approaching normal. The great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads have opened their lines and the main lines are running regularly. The Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound is still detouring its trains but expects to be able to use its own line tomorrow.

The announcement that water from Lake Washington is being pumped into the city mains to relieve the famine in Seattle caused by the breaking of the supply pipe lines by the Cedar River flood, was made today. Two pumping stations were put in operation today and 6,000,000 gallons of lake water is being poured into the low service reservoir.

People in the intermediate service district saw water run from the tap in their homes today for the first time since Sunday.

There was not a sufficient supply to provide the entire district with continuous service so the water was turned into different sections for a period of two hours to enable the householders to fill the bathtubs and other receptacles.

The engineers believe they will be able to supply a continuous service under light pressure to the famine area soon. The temporary plant at Swann Lake will be finished today and five powerful electric pumps will pour 10,000,000 gallons into the Cedar River pipe lines below the break at Landsburg. The water in Swann Lake is declared good by health authorities.

BEAN BAG MAKERS COMPLAIN.

Hold an Indignation Meeting in Governor's Office to Stop Competition of Frison-Made Goods.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—A delegation of bean bag manufacturers appeared before the Governor this afternoon to enter a protest against bean bags being manufactured in the State prison at San Quentin, the same as grain bags.

When the Governor was elected, and while he was making a trip through the bean growing sections of the State, farmers engaged in the culture of beans complained to him that the market price for bean bags was not stable, and they could not rely upon it because private concerns could charge whatever they say fit for the bags.

He asked if bean bags which are of the same material as grain bags, but smaller in size—could not be made at San Quentin and sold to them in the same way grain bags are made and sold to grain farmers.

The Governor took up the matter with Warden Hoyle, of San Quentin, and a short time ago, bean bags were made and placed upon the market. The appearance of competition has aroused the bean bag manufacturers.

IDLE MEN IN UGLY MOOD.

Flooded, They Alleged, by an Employment Agency in Denver, They Threaten Trouble in Benson, Ariz.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BISBEE (Ariz.) Nov. 22.—According to reports from Benson, Ariz., local trouble is feared from a number of idle laborers, who were shipped to that point by Denver employment agencies, under promise of work. When the men arrived, they found there was no work for them.

A shipment of twenty-three arrived last night, and swelled the number of idle men to sixty. They are now in a very ugly mood.

The contractors of the El Paso and Southwestern extension disclaim responsibility for the acts of the Denver employment agencies, and declare they are not in need of any more laborers. The men here say they paid a Denver employment agency $12 each for a job in the camp near Benson. Benson is five miles from the right of way of the new railroad extension, and is the place where the recent trouble occurred between a crowd of railroad strikers and the Sheriff.

Stockton Woman of Twenty-One Years Tells Court She Found Her First Spouse Is Alive.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

STOCKTON (Cal.) Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Anna V. Fox, formerly Miss Anna V. Hildreth of this city, filed a complaint this afternoon asking that her marriage to Max C. Fox, a bartender of San Francisco, be annulled.

The woman, who is 21 years of age, alleged that she married Fox in Sacramento last August, and that at the time she believed herself a widow, having heard that her former husband, J. L. Wall, whom she married in 1906 and who, she says, deserted her four hours after the ceremony, was dead. Several days ago she found out Wall was alive.

Mrs. Fox lived with Fox two months and then left him. She declares just as soon as her marriage to Fox is annulled she expects to file divorce proceedings against Wall.

The Faithful From Utah Unveil in Missouri Monument to Witnesses of Their Holy Book Translation.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RICHMOND (Mo.) Nov. 22.—With appropriate exercises begun early this morning with a sacred concert by the Mormon tabernacle choir at a memorial service in the Farris Theater and in the presence of many high church dignitaries and 500 members of the church who traveled from Utah in special trains to be present, a huge granite shaft, erected to the memory of Oliver Cowdery David Whitmer and Martin Harris, the three apostles who witnessed the translation of the Book of Mormon, was unveiled here today.

The monument stands over the grave of Oliver Cowdery in the old Richmond Cemetery. Cowdery, who was one of the six members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at its organization April 6, 1830, at Fayette, Seneca county, N. Y., died in Richmond in 1856. Whitmer died here a few years later. Both are buried in the old cemetery. Harris died in Salt Lake and is buried there.

Theodore Roosevelt Said:

"Every person who invests in well-selected real estate in a growing section of a prosperous country, adopts the surest and safest method for becoming independent, for real estate is the basis of all wealth."

This Company has the money of its stockholders invested chiefly in choice, well located, subdivision property in or adjacent to Los Angeles. Twenty-four hundred acres of it, including tracts developed and ready to develop. It has found Los Angeles real estate the biggest of money makers. This statement is proved by the dividends paid quarterly by this Company. An average of about thirty-nine per cent a year for nearly sixteen years.

Investing in this Company's stock is investing in Los Angeles real estate. It is done through this Company, by combining your money with that of others.

The Guarantee Fund

The Guarantee Fund has invariably given back in full, the money of every investor, who wished it, irrespective of the size of his stock holdings or the length of time his money was invested. The Guarantee Fund has always made Los Angeles Investment Company stock convertible into cash at once.

The Guarantee Fund is not now, and never has been, an agreement to list stock for resale; or an agreement to try to sell stock for those wanting their money back. The Fund has money—over a hundred thousand dollars of it—ready to purchase stock from small stockholders at a price protecting them from loss. If you want your money back—ask the Guarantee Fund for it.

The Company—A Few Facts

The Los Angeles Investment Company was founded in 1886, established in Los Angeles in 1895, and incorporated in California in 1899. Its chief business is buying and selling real estate, building homes—selling them on low cash and time payments, and offering safe investments.

The Company has handled twenty-four tracts, some built up and sold, others opening, totalling 2409 acres, in or adjacent to Los Angeles.

The Company operates a monster house factory and yards, and turns out practically every part of a home. All work is done by its own employees, each of them is a stockholder and a part owner of the Company. College Tract, Derby Park, College Tract Annex, Elder Places, 1 and 2, and Deeble Tract are the Company's most important developments. The immense yards and mills are at Western and Slauson Avenues, and a new tract is opening at Florence and Vermont. The Company's 1700 acre Hill Tract lies just southwest of Los Angeles.

The Company has more than 8800 stockholders and sells as few as five shares to one person, but not more than 1000. The Company has paid a total of 627 per cent in cash dividends during the time it has been in Los Angeles, or an average of about 39 per cent a year. The last quarterly cash dividend was $175,000.00. The paid-in capital and surplus of the Company is $6,740,000.00, making it the largest financial institution in the Southwest. Its money is invested chiefly in choice real estate, also in mortgages, secured loans, stocks and bonds.

There is no "promotion stock," no stock has been traded or sold at a discount, and no "commissions" are paid for the sale of stock. The Company has no expensive "agents" or "agencies" here or elsewhere.

Stock is being sold from time to time in order to carry out development plans, to buy additional property and to provide for future growth and solidity. Every additional stockholder makes an advertiser and a possible home buyer.

Five shares can be purchased for a cash payment of $1 and $1 or more a month, stock drawing dividends in the meanwhile.

THE CROSS-ROADS, where the tarring was to take place, but did not reach there in time to see it. While we were on our way, Ed and Mary passed us on the way back home. Then some of the members of the party came by on motorcycles. They told us they had tarring Mary. We then turned back home.

Prosecutor McCannless began the cross-examination. The question of giving up Ed Riebold by his bondsmen, of whom Schmidt was one, was taken up.

"Did you give him up because he had told on the crowd?" asked the prosecutor.

"No, sir," was the answer. "We were afraid he would leave—he kept running around the State, and we couldn't keep track of him."

"Did you say anything about the tarring while you were walking along the road?"

"Yes, I said I hoped to God they wouldn't do it."

HARRIMAN PRESIDENT ARRIVES IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SHOUTED, "STOP."

"I shouted to her to stop," said Shugart, "but she shot again. The man lurched forward on his face. Running around the house, I saw the woman stooping over the prostrate form. As I approached, she ran into the house in front of which the shooting had occurred."

"When I reached the man he was still gasping. I turned him over and asked who he was and what had happened, but he was beyond speech."

"When you turned the man over, did you find anything?" asked Special Prosecutor Horace G. Benson.

"I found a revolver," Shugart replied.

He identified the weapon with which Patterson was killed.

Shugart then described how he had entered the house to which the woman had fled, had found her in a chair in the sitting-room, apparently in a faint. He said when he unbuttoned her jacket to search for a weapon she opened her eyes and looked at him.

"I asked her who the man outside was," declared the witness, "and she answered 'He is my husband and he wronged me.'"

She made no further statement, Shugart declared.

Cross-examination by Attorney O. N. Hilton for the defense failed to shake Shugart's testimony on any material point.

Before the examination of Shugart, the State introduced witnesses to substantiate its contention that the killing of Patterson was premeditated.

George W. Strain, a young illustrator of Denver, told of occurrences at Mrs. Patterson's bungalow on the Saturday night preceding the shooting. He had been in the habit of visiting at Mr. Patterson's home, he said, and admitted he had been armed on the occasion, as Mrs. Patterson had told him her husband had a violent temper.

HUSBAND APPEARS.

Patterson and a friend appeared at the house unexpectedly, he said, and Mrs. Patterson hurriedly went into the house. Patterson ordered him from the premises in a threatening manner, the witness said, and he drew a revolver and forced Patterson and his friend to leave.

Strain said Mrs. Patterson ran after her husband and they went away together. After her return she upbraided him for jeopardizing the chances of success in her divorce action. As he was leaving, Strain said, Mrs. Patterson asked him to leave his revolver, which he identified as the weapon with which Patterson was killed.

In a cold, pitiless statement, hard as tempered steel, Special Prosecutor Horace G. Benson outlined to the jury the case of the State. Declaring that the State expects to show that when Mrs. Patterson was surprised by her husband, under circumstances that threatened to jeopardize her chances for success in the divorce action she had brought, Benson said, she armed herself, lay in wait for him at a spot which she knew he was accustomed to pass in his morning walks, inveigled him to an isolated place and shot him in the back, deliberately and premeditatedly. He asked for a verdict of first degree murder, if these things were proved to the satisfaction of the jury.

In the case as outlined by Prosecutor Benson this morning, lawyers say, there is no loophole for the defense to introduce testimony regarding the life of Mrs. Patterson before she and her husband came to Denver for his health in October, 1910. If testimony is to be introduced, it is declared, the defense itself must lay the ground, and it is certain that any such attempt will be bitterly fought by the State.

PRIOR TO THE TRAGEDY.

The State would show, Benson declared, that immediately prior to the shooting Charles A. Patterson, a consumptive, was a patient at a sanatorium in a suburb of Denver. His wife was living in a bungalow in town which she had purchased. The reason for their living apart would be shown later, he stated.

On the Saturday night preceding the shooting, which occurred on Monday morning, the State would show by witnesses, he said, that Patterson, accompanied by a friend whom the State has been unable to find, paid an unexpected call at his wife's home. He found her, the prosecutor asserted, sitting on the porch with George W. Strain, a young Denver man, and that when Mrs. Patterson saw him she ran into the house crying, "My God, there comes my husband."

The State would show, said Benson, that Mrs. Patterson had told Strain of her husband's temper and that on that night Strain had told her that Patterson asked Strain if he were not in the wrong house, and that Patterson leaning forward, said something to the effect that he "would fix Strain," that Strain, pointing a revolver at Patterson's breast, ordered him off the premises and forced Patterson and his friend to walk off with their hands above their heads.

The State expects to show, Benson said, that Mrs. Patterson bitterly upbraided Strain for his part in the affair, declaring that what had happened would interfere with her divorce proceedings and that later, she asked Strain to let her have his revolver, saying that she was afraid of Patterson, and that evidence would show that he let her have the weapon.

Then, Mr. Benson said, he expected to show that on the next day Mrs. Patterson tried to arrange a meeting with her husband, but that he refused to meet her and that on Monday morning Mrs. Patterson, taking with her Strain's revolver, went out to a spot near the sanatorium and waited at a place she knew her husband was accustomed to pass in his daily walks.

SAW HIS WIFE.

"When Patterson finally appeared and saw his wife," Mr. Benson declared, "he expected to show that he started to run, but stood still when his wife called to him to stop."

We expect to show that she then went up to him and caught him by the arm with her left hand, while in her right hand she held the revolver, hanging by her side and concealed by her dress."

"That they walked together to one of the most isolated spots in that vicinity and that in this spot a shot was heard."

"That a witness who heard the first shot looked up and saw Patterson on his hands and knees and heard him cry out; that this witness saw Mrs. Patterson standing over the prostrate man pointing a pistol at him; that the witness cried out to her not to shoot and that Mrs. Patterson shot her husband again in the back; and that a moment later the witness saw her shove the revolver under her husband's body and flee into the home of E. B. Hendrie, before the state of which the shooting occurred."

Manled, He Fights Robbers Who Murdering Him Get Enough to Pay for the Gunpowder.

FAIRFIELD (Utah) Nov. 22.—Sixty cents just enough to pay for the ammunition they used, was the sum which robbers took the life of William A. Sandcock, whose body was found on the floor of the Sampson Grocery Company store, early this morning. Sandcock, who was manager of the grocery company, and who slept in the rear of the store, made a desperate resistance before he was overpowered.

It was evident that the robbers, who had forced an entrance without awakening him, struck him on the head with a spike maul while he slept. In spite of his wound, Sandcock fought bravely, reaching his revolver which was kept near the cash register, but before he could use the weapon, he was shot through the head and killed.

FEDERATION WILL SPLIT.

Miners, Incensed at Gompers, Will Quit Organization.

Three National Unions Are Angered at His Stance.

Socialists and Unionites in Tangle and Fight.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ATLANTA (Ga.) Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Secret joint conference between the Western Federation of Miners and the United Mine Workers are being held here tonight with a view of withdrawing from the American Federation of Labor. The faction of electrical workers which is not affiliated with the national labor body is also represented in the meeting. These three organizations may form an independent federation.

What was regarded as a direct attack on the Western Federation of Miners by President Gompers, coupled with his bitter denunciation of the Socialists, caused the insurgent movement. This convention of the American Federation of Labor in the first one of fifteen years in which the Western Federation of Miners has been represented.

While defending his connection with the National Civic Federation, President Gompers yesterday referred to an organization "that has been fighting the American Federation of Labor for years from without," and added that "it is now being from within."

These statements were accepted by the Western Federation of Miners as a challenge and they immediately started the insurgent movement. The resolution condemning the National Civic Federation was introduced by the Socialist and supported by the vote of both organizations of miners.

The Adjustment Committee has in hand the controversy between the carpenters and the sheet metal workers, which resulted last year in the expulsion of the former from the building trades department.

The convention will adjourn on Saturday. President Gompers and the other officers probably will be re-elected easily, as the Socialists have not developed enough strength to offer serious opposition.

It is regarded as practically certain that the 1912 convention will be held at Rochester, although Richmond, Va., is waging a strong fight for the meeting.

Resolutions adopted today favor the construction of government vessels in government ship yards; indorse the strike on the Harriman lines; urge the changing of material from iron to steel; urge compulsory education, free school books, and night schools, and petition President Taft to recommend to the Governor of Porto Rico larger school appropriations and an eight-hour day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Criticism and remedial recommendations, ranging from mild to radical, were presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission today at the opening of the series of hearings to be held throughout the country in investigation of the express business.

The magnitude of this business was brought out by Attorney Frank Lyon, counsel for the commission, who said the combined express companies operate over more than 270,000 miles of railway and do business through 21,000 stations. He placed the cost of operating the express plants at $27,000,000, the operating net income at $10,000,000, or a fraction over 35 per cent. on plant valuation.

HYDE TESTIMONY BEGINS.

Lawyer Tells Jurors in Kansas City They Will Be Asked to Condemn on a Bill of Conspiracy.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 22.—Frank P. Walsh, attorney for the defense, finished his opening statement to the jury this afternoon in the case of Dr. B. C. Hyde, charged with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope. Judge Porterfield announced that the hearing would begin tomorrow.

Walsh told the jurors they were to be asked to take the life of a man upon the finding of an infinitesimal amount of cyanide in the testimony of a chemist who had been hired at $200 a day to find a deadly quantity of strychnine in Col. Swope's viscera.

Walsh said he would attack the integrity and ability of the experts who conducted the autopsy upon Swope's body and who made search for the poison.

Walsh referred to the arrangement between Dr. and Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Logan F. Swope, Mrs. Hyde's mother, Senator Reed, for the use of the funds of the state, and if such reference were allowed the state would go into the cause of such arrangement. That, it is believed, would mean an attack upon the personal character of Dr. Hyde by the prosecution.

THE LOHMER CASE.

While Senate Committee shifts inquiry to Washington Chicago Jury Looks Into Allegations of Perjury.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—With the shifting of Chicago to Washington of the scene of the senatorial investigation of United States Senator Lohmer's election, it was learned today that the federal grand jury in session here contemplates a rigid inquiry into charges that perjury had been committed in testimony given before the committee.

The senators on the committee, headed by Chairman Billingsham, however, let it be known that they were averse to any grand jury action until all the evidence was in. Further it was given out that the evidence in possession of the committee would not be available to a grand jury until the hearings were closed. With this understanding a grand jury action temporarily was suspended.

Adjournment was taken until December 5, when the hearing will be resumed in Washington.

BITTER WITH RAGE.

With a bitterness that lent emphasis to his utterances, and at times fairly beside himself with pent-up rage, Leonidas Merritt told today a personal narrative of his dealings with John D. Rockefeller, and how the latter had forced him out of business in Minnesota.

Mr. Merritt declared that it was after he had turned down a proposition from Mr. Rockefeller which he characterized as "stealing" that Rockefeller called on him to pay $1,000,000 loan and brought about his downfall. The proposition, Mr. Merritt said, came through the Rev. Dr. Gates. Mr. Rockefeller's almoner.

"I listened in amazement to it," said Merritt. "It meant that several men would be thrown out of the company and their stock taken. I turned to Gates and said: 'Mr. Gates, you came from John D. Rockefeller. Go back to John D. Rockefeller and tell him that when I steal for a living I will steal for myself.'"

BARRED FROM BORROWING.

Leonidas Merritt, brother of Alfred Merritt, who yesterday told the story of the family loss of valuable ore and railroad property to John D. Rockefeller, reiterated before the committee today many of his brother's statements.

Experts went over the Misabe range and condemned the ore as useless, he said. That prevented the Merritts borrowing money. He further testified that among the men he tried to interest in the ore properties and railroad projects with-out success were H. C. Frick and Andrew Carnegie.

"Frick, who was then in the Carnegie company, invited me to see him," said Merritt. "He buzzed me, cut me off short and ridiculed my project."

After the completion of the road in 1902, the Merritts' ore company tried to sell out 51 per cent. of the stock in the mines and railroad to the Minnesota Iron Company, a would-be stockholder in the Merritts' company.

At that time Senator Clapp, who was a stockholder with the Merritts and their attorney, urged them to sell out to the Minnesota Iron Company, but Mr. Rockefeller was suggested to them.

DR. GATES URGENT.

Merritt related how, in 1902, he went to New York with Rev. S. D. Gates. Mr. Rockefeller's almoner, and urged him to accept the consolidation of interests proposed by Mr. Merritt.

"Gates took me to Rockefeller," said Merritt. "He said if we would consolidate the consolidation he proposed he would take care of us. He also said he never speculated and for that reason would not take any stock in the consolidation. He said, 'I will keep the bonds in the proposed Lake Superior Consolidated Iron Mine Company that we were organizing. His talk captured me and I told him I would agree.'"

Merritt said Gates told him that Rockefeller was hard up. "By golly," said Merritt, "I believed him but now I know that Gates lied."

GREAT PUBLIC SERVICE.

At this juncture Attorney Reid, counsel for the steel corporation, asked Chairman Stanley if he still thought this line of testimony competent in the inquiry.

The chair feels that right at this juncture he is performing the great public service he ever did in his life, Mr. Stanley replied.

Particularly the Ladies

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixs of Senno is particularly adapted to ladies and children; and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used.

It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence. Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unhealthfully. Therefore, when buying always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixs of Senno, to get its beneficial effects. For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 Cents per bottle.

DOUBTS THE REVOLT WILL GAIN IMPETUS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) That nothing serious is liable to result with the precautions that have been taken in the Mexican situation is the opinion of Brig.-Gen. Joseph W. Duncan, who returned this morning from Laredo, where he made a personal investigation of border conditions. He thinks the uprising will gain no greater proportions and does not believe it necessary to send other troops to the front. He is confident the civil and military authorities on this side of the river have matters well in hand and thinks the precautions taken by the Mexican government in massing 25,000 soldiers on the Mexican frontier will deter any would-be revolutionists from an outbreak. He will, however, keep in close touch with the situation and is prepared to act at a moment's notice.

The proclamations urging a revolution which are reported to have been prepared and circulated by Gen. Bernardo Reyes, and which bears the printed signature of "B. Reyes," have not received any official designation as "The Plan of Soledad." In this manifesto the Madero government of Mexico is characterized as an "illegitimate, anarchical demagogue," and calls the people, the soldiers and the nation to rise and cast him out.

The other two documents are addressed to the people of Mexico and the army respectively. The soldiers are reminded that they have had set over them chiefs of the recent revolution and that in every way possible Madero has sought to stultify them. Gen. Reyes' astonishment is depicted when he learned that President Diaz had treated with the rebels and had agreed to the peace of Cuernavaca. Troop M. Third Cavalry, the last company to be ordered away from Fort Sam Houston for the border, left for Brownsville this morning. They so prepared to remain indefinitely.

GOES TO PRISON TODAY.

Van Pelt, Senator Work's Brother-in-Law, Pleaded With Verdict, Tells Sons to Work.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SHELBYVILLE (Ind.) Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Charles Edward Van Pelt, brother-in-law of Senator Work of California, who was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury yesterday, his victim being Charles H. Tindall, says that he is pleased with the verdict of the jury and his sentence of from two to twenty-one years in the prison at Michigan City. After sentence was pronounced he shook hands with his three sons and told them to go to work at their occupations, that he would be all right, and would leave prison in two years if his actions there would mean anything to the Board of Pardons. Van Pelt will be taken to prison tomorrow by Sheriff Moore.

There is Nothing "Just as Good" as

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Unscrupulous dealers may tell you there is, but they are in need of their profits only. A half century of undoubted success has naturally brought forward imitators. The "Square" Merchant has Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and will tell you there is nothing "just as good."

CARNEGIE CONFERS WITH THE PRESIDENT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Andrew Carnegie spent more than an hour today with President Taft and Secretary Hilges, but would not disclose his mission at the White House.

Asked if he would appear before the Stanley Steel Committee, if subpoenaed, Mr. Carnegie answered: "I will appear anywhere that I am legally summoned and tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

ARE COUNTING ON ROOSEVELT.

La Follette Boosters in Session in Detroit Say the Former President Is for the Senator.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DETROIT (Mich.) Nov. 22.—Insurgent Republican League leaders held a conference here to lay plans for furthering the President's candidacy of Senator La Follette in Michigan. Among those present were United States Senator Crawford of South Dakota, Frank A. Harrison of Lincoln, La Follette's old manager for Michigan; State Treasurer Dahl of Wisconsin; Secretary A. L. Cohen of the Michigan Campaign Committee; and other Michigan politicians.

Mr. Harrison said that while Theodore Roosevelt did not want to make any public announcement of his views at this time, the former President had assured the insurgent leaders that he was in sympathy with them and with Senator La Follette and would not himself be a candidate for the nomination.

Would You Pay Good Money Hear Bad Music?

No! That's the answer; and, by the same token, don't pay good money for the privilege of producing bad music yourself. In words in every-day English—be careful what player piano you select or the love of music that made you want a player piano in the first place will make you elsewhere if it's the wrong one.

We sell the Apollo. Understand, first of all, that you cannot get genuine Apollo for less than $650. You pay more because it costs us more, more because it costs the manufacturers more. And, by every test the Apollo Player Piano is worth a lot more. Many other players can be bought for much less. They are worth less.

MELVILLE CLARK'S APOLLO Player Piano

The foundation stones of the Apollo Player Piano reputation were laid by competitors. All over the country these men unanimously advertised the Apollo Player Piano and the Melville Clark Co. by commenting on the possibilities of their survival under an ironclad policy of "pure gold quality only, at the consequent price." The Apollo has survived. It has thrived. Today the Melville Clark Piano Co. are the largest manufacturers of player pianos in America where the piano, the player and music are all made in one factory under the direct supervision of the founder of the eighty-eight-note player piano. This means something. Think it over.

We regret that under the policy of the Melville Clark Piano Co., of not lessening the quality to cheapen the price of the Apollo, we must forego the pleasure of serving those citizens who feel that they will not pay $650 for a player piano. Of course, we will make terms to suit the purchaser. Or we'll make a generous allowance for your old player piano—just change the price of the Apollo we cannot and will not.

But $650 or more invested in an Apollo will, we believe, give you more genuine, lasting pleasure than can be obtained anywhere else at a like investment. Won't you look into this? Drop in and hear the Apollo play. Let your own ears and your own eyes convince you of its swiftness.

Your old piano or player piano has a cash value as part purchase price on an Apollo. Don't feel like "paying it all at once" we'll make terms so easy you won't feel the money.

Perhaps You Have Never Really Tasted Sealshipt Oysters

10,000,000 people who asked for Sealshipt Oysters last season were served with substitutes.

The demand was clearly for Sealshipt, because these are the only oysters the public has come to regard with certainty—the only oysters with a name.

Yet, because these oysters last year, were sold in bulk, the temptation was too great for dishonest dealers.

Millions of gallons of nameless oysters were sold to inquirers as Sealshipt, because the inquirer had no protection against the fraud.

Perhaps, therefore, you have never really tasted the genuine Sealshipt oysters.

If you have eaten oysters supposedly Sealshipt, and failed to note the difference between them and ordinary oysters, then it is certain that you have never tasted the genuine.

For Sealshipt oysters are tender, firm, plump, and have all of the delicate sea-flavor which oysters have at the shore.

(The variety stamped on top of the Sealshipt is your guarantee of the particular kind of oyster you prefer)

TELLS STORY
IN WHISPERS.School Girl Takes Stand in
McDavid Trial.Alleged Prisoner of Dentist
Dramatic Witness.Identifies Doctor's Friend
Who Came to Room.

SAN BERNARDINO (Cal.) Nov. 22.—Miss Jessie McDonald, the school girl, alleged to be the victim of Dr. Arthur W. McDavid, a dentist, took the witness stand late today in the trial of McDavid, accused of her abduction, and told the jury a terrible tale of her life in her prison, adjoining McDavid's office, for sixteen months.

The trial of McDavid made rapid strides today. The jury was completed from the second venire at 4 o'clock, and immediately after the jurors were sworn, Dist. Atty. R. H. Goodell called Miss McDonald to the stand as the State's first witness. Former Superior Court Judge J. L. Campbell represented McDavid, the defendant having reconsidered his determination of yesterday to conduct his own case.

Miss McDonald's story was told almost in whispers. The courtroom was crowded with spectators, and all eyes were centered upon her. McDavid, sitting directly in front of Miss McDonald, gazed steadily at her, never once taking his eyes from the witness. Miss McDonald, however, avoided him.

TELLS HER STORY.
The girl's story ranged back over a period of five years, when she first met McDavid as a patient. "I cared for my child and myself," she testified, "I washed clothes, Dr. McDavid bringing the water necessary for this from his office. There was only one couch and two straight-backed chairs in the room where I spent sixteen months."

She then told of the visits of a man to her room whom Dr. McDavid called "Bill." "I was ordered to get meals for them," she testified. "This man Bill called me 'The Chick.' I once asked Bill to telephone my sister and tell her where I was. This was a short time before my father rescued me. I don't know what the man's name was."

"This man 'Bill' in the courtroom," asked Judge Oster of Miss McDonald. Miss McDonald scanned face after face in the densely-crowded courtroom, and was half-shaking her head when the court ordered: "Bill, stand up."

Danger.

BIG STEAMER IS AGROUND,
THE WIRELESS FAILS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Whether the eighty-seven passengers of the steamer Prince Joachim which went ashore at Atwood Key, near Bermuda Island, in the Bahamas, early today, had been transported this evening, as expected, to Ward line steamers, one of which, a late afternoon message said, was already standing by, could not be learned at a late hour because of the interruption of wireless communication.

For hours wireless stations in this vicinity were unable to communicate with the Prince Joachim because of the interference of other aerial messages. Up to 10 o'clock tonight the Hamburg-American line officials here had received no further advice than that the steamer Sequence, of the Ward line, was standing by the stranded vessel, that another Ward liner, the Vigilance, was also expected tonight, and that arrangements to take of the passengers were being made.

Among the Prince Joachim's passengers are William J. Bryan, his wife and grandchild.

Monetary.

ALDRICH IS THE TARGET OF CROSS-FIRE QUESTIONS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—Nelson W. Aldrich, chairman of the National Monetary Commission, was the target this afternoon at the American Bankers' Association convention for a cross fire of questions from hundreds of practical financiers. But he had a ready answer whenever his plan for the revision of the country's financial monetary system was questioned.

His open forum was the most interesting feature of the long day of addresses dealing with various phases of the financial problem. Mr. Aldrich was emphatic in his rejection of a suggestion made in the address of President Frank B. Anderson of the Bank of California, San Francisco, who, while he approved the proposed reserve association, did not think his hands had been tied by forbidding it to enter the open market for the purchase of commercial paper to protect its discount rate.

"It is utterly impossible," said Mr. Aldrich, "I think it would be wrong and my judgment has been confirmed that such a plan would prove fatal to the institution."

To permit the reserve association to buy commercial paper in the open market would prevent enactment in law of the proposed plan, he declared. Further, he said, European banking institutions had discontinued this practice.

As to the possible inflation of currency, Mr. Aldrich said that after a certain amount of bank notes are issued, not fully protected by gold, they would not be taxed.

Why is the soda cracker to-day such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

To-day there is a soda cracker which is the recognized staple — Uneeda Biscuit.

Uneeda Biscuit are the most nutritious food made from flour and should be eaten every day by every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package.

sex. Involved also in the drama is the relationship between two aspirants for the position of war leader, the arrow-maker himself, and a rival. Everett Maxwell will be seen in the title part and Raymond Freeman in the opposed impersonation.

Other members of the cast will be Miss Ida M. Thompson, Mrs. Alfre Whitney Allen, Miss Mary Stevens, Miss Juanita Bailor, Mrs. Daniel Green, Miss Caroline Ferris, Franklin McCuskey, F. W. Simmons, P. L. Osborne, Arthur Mason, P. L. Bernardo, Allan Box, L. L. Robinson and Charles H. Beebe.

Caecil Lean and Florence Holbrook will appear at the Mason Opera-house next week, with matinee, Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) and Saturday, in a big production of "Bright Eyes," by the authors of "Three Twins" and "Madame Sherry."

The second act of "Bright Eyes" is novelty in that it shows both the lower and upper floors of a carriage house on the estate of a wealthy gentleman near New York City. In this scene the fun arises from the innocent meeting of a young actor and a society woman at the same time that there occurs in the same place, an equally innocent meeting of the actor's wife and the husband of the society woman. This situation is complicated by a clandestine meeting in the same place of coachman and a ladies' maid. In addition to the story, music has been written for it by Karl Hoehnha. The sale of seats for "Bright Eyes" will open today.

Of San Francisco, who came South to attend Miss Margaret Gaffey's debutante party and who was the honored guest at a tea party given at the Alexandria by Mrs. Kenneth Freese.

DR. AND MRS. FRANK DRYINGTON of No. 2943 West Washington street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Gaffey, to Lieut. R. E. Howell, U.S.N., who is assigned to the U.S.S. California, flagship of the Pacific fleet.

American Beauties in massive brass jardiniere and tall Kentia palms enhanced the beautiful new ballroom of Hotel Alexandria last evening. For the elaborate ball given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Hicks of West Adams street in compliment to their daughter, Miss Elizabeth.

This was not a debutante party, however, as the young honoree was presented last season in Washington, D. C., at a brilliant function given by her aunt, Mrs. John W. Dwight, who is remembered as Miss Emma Childs of this city.

Two hundred and fifty guests responded to invitations last evening, and they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dwight, Mrs. Walter Dean of San Francisco, sister of Mr. Hicks, and Mrs. Emmeline Childs, Miss Hicks's grandmother.

Mrs. Hicks was attired in white tulle and point lace; Mrs. Childs wore a Parisian gown of black and white rose point and chantilly lace; Miss Hicks, attractive robe of green chiffon spangled in crystals and pearls; Mrs. Dean, white satin embroidered in silver, and Mrs. Dwight, white chamois satin veiled with lace.

The most attractive cozy corners were arranged about the ballroom and in the reception rooms, where the young people enjoyed punch between dances. These were arranged in a garden setting, tall tropical palms being used to carry out the idea. The assembly room was also beautifully decorated with rare blossoms, while below stairs in the dining-room, where supper was served, baskets of Killarney roses lent their beauty.

Dinner parties of interest preceded the dancing, one of the most elaborate being that presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, who entertained for the five debutantes—Miss Hicks, Miss Margaret Drake, Miss Margaret Gaffey, Miss Katherine Ramsey and Miss Juliet Bolleau. Pink roses decorated the tables at this delightful affair, which took place at the California club, and dancing was a post-prandial feature.

Senator and Mrs. Eugene Ives, with their two daughters, the Misses Cora and Annette Ives, also entertained a party.

Miss Clark Entertains. Mrs. Margaret McClure of Salt Lake City, who is passing the winter at Hotel Alexandria with her grandmother, Mrs. James Miner, and Miss Conchita Sepulveda, who is enjoying a visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Moff, were honored guests yesterday at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. Ross Clark at her home, No. 719 West Adams street.

The guests were seated both in the dining room and breakfast room. The former was beautified with Richmond roses arranged in a handsome silver design which formed five vases. This rested on a beautiful luncheon-set of Venetian lace and the table was arranged with Bohemian glass. In the breakfast room which is furnished in velvety, a handsome arrangement of pom-pom chrysanthemums were used and the same set with Venetian glass.

The young guests who shared the hospitality were Miss Echo Allen, Miss Kate Van Nuy, Miss Carmelita Rosecrans, Miss Katherine Ramsey, Miss Margaret Drake, Miss Lucy Clark, Miss Inez Clark, Miss Louise Mary, Miss Sue Carpenter, Miss Fanny Todd Carpenter, Miss Virginia Garner, Miss Jeanette Garner, Miss Emma Conroy, Miss Elizabeth Bishop, Miss Guendolen Laughlin, Miss Juliet Borden, Miss Katherine Stearns, Miss Virginia Walsh, Miss Elizabeth Rittm, Miss Edna Letts, Miss Evangeline Dunbar, Miss Mary Lindley, Miss Sally Benner and Mrs. Walter Miller Clark.

Christ Church Wedding. Miss Dorothy M. Ashdown and Francis J. Hawkins, Jr., were married and has charge of the Salt Lake Railroad interests in and about Pioche. His father is also a well-known Nevada lawyer. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have gone for a short honeymoon trip and will return to Los Angeles to be with Dr. Green for Thanksgiving, after which they will go to Pioche to make their home.

Honeymoon Ends. Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Tatum of San Francisco are passing a few days with Mrs. J. T. Tatum at Ocean Park. It is their intention to make Los Angeles their permanent home. They have just returned from several months passed in the East on their honeymoon. Mrs. Tatum was formerly Miss Therese Murphy, a society bud of considerable prominence in the Golden Gate city.

Pleasant Tea. Mrs. George S. Crites entertained about sixty friends at tea at the Ivin Apartments several days ago. She was also one of the patronesses of a pretty dance given there.

Another Wedding. The marriage of Miss Kate Billington and William H. Planku of Arena, Wis., took place this morning. Rev. Edward Brady officiating. They were attended by Miss Mae Moran and Glenn Troeger, cousin of the bride. For three years Miss Billington has been confidential clerk to the Attorney-General at Madison and prior to that time was a teacher in the Madison public schools. Planku is engaged in agriculture in Arena, Wis. After a trip through Southern California they will be at home to their friends after February 1 in Arena.

FOR MOTHER AND TWINS. Frank Rae Clayton of No. 3522 Walton avenue, manager of the local branch of the Tidel Detective Service company, and Senior Warden of Silver Trowel lodge, No. 415 P. & A. M., who was recently blessed with twin girls, took home two handsome silver cups and spoons yesterday. They were presented to the wife and babies by the members of his lodge.

FOR STATE CIVIC LEAGUE. Highland Park Chamber of Commerce Boosting for Union of All California Betterment Societies. The newly-elected board of directors of the Highland Park Chamber of Commerce has called a meeting for the second Monday in December at the office of the secretary, G. F. Green, under the Masonic Hall, on Pasadena avenue, for the election of the officers who will serve its body in 1912.

The Highland Park chamber is planning a campaign of boosting for a number of large undertakings during the ensuing year. It will confine its energies mainly in assisting the development of the Arroyo Seco as a public park. Another proposed public benefit to which they will contribute their energies and means is the institution of a State civic association. San Diego and San Francisco each have sectional civic societies including numerous lesser organizations and the proposition now under contemplation is to organize a State society, which will have its headquarters in Los Angeles, and which will include every active commercial and civic organization in the State. Together these organizations will work as a unit of boosters for a greater California. The plan has received favorable consideration from the larger organizations of this character which have been approached on the subject.

UNREMNERATIVE ART. Nelson E. Brown, when arraigned before Justice Young yesterday afternoon on a complaint charging failure to provide, sworn to by Mrs. Jennie Brown, told the court that his income was $15 cents a day, which he earns in the orchestra of a small theater. In default of bail he was remanded into the custody of the Sheriff until this morning, when he will be tried.

GARFORD CARS
ARRIVE TODAY.

Cross Continent Run Feat
Which Astonishes.

Tourists Touched All Four
Borders of Country.

San Diego Gives Party a Warm Welcome.

BY REET C. SMITH.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) With more than 4000 miles of rough and smooth country behind them, the Garford ocean-to-ocean tourists are in San Diego tonight, prepared for the start to Los Angeles tomorrow. The last leg of the long journey will be completed Thursday, when the caravans reach The Times office. The Garford tour is one of the most astonishing automobile runs ever conducted. When Manager Holmes of the Hotel Grant greeted the tourists today it was the signal for a reception such as San Diego knows just how to give tourists. The members of the Commercial Club here then took the Garford and the cross-country tourists in charge, and they were driven some miles of the good roads of San Diego county.

VISIT POINT LOMA.
One of the most enjoyable runs today was the drive to Point Loma, where places of interest were visited. A. G. Spaulding piloted the cars over the smooth boulevards and enabled the men who have driven from the shores of the Atlantic to get a real view of one of the most beautiful bays on the Pacific.

The tour was ended with a drive to Coronado, where a banquet was served tonight. The Garford people are being cared for by H. D. Ashton, who has made a host of friends here. He is the manager of the tour, and A. L. Westgard is the pilot. The run, this far, has been replete with stirring incidents. The Garford cars have touched four sides of the United States.

After leaving the Atlantic Ocean the four machines with the big Garford prairie schooner were driven across the Canadian line just beyond Buffalo, N. Y. Then the tour was continued and the cars were sent across the line into Mexico at Campo. The fourth trick was turned when the cars circled San Diego Bay this morning. F. Lord of the Lord Motor Car Company is in San Diego tonight, after having driven down over the coast roads. He will pilot the tourists into Los Angeles tomorrow and the cars will leave the Hotel Grant at 6 o'clock and should reach Los Angeles about 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Ned Lord will drive the Garford pilot car and will set the pace over the coast route. The cars will enter the city over the Whittier route and along East First street to The Times office. There the ocean-to-ocean run will be ended after one of the longest motor tours on record.

LAST LAP.
The road up the coast to Los Angeles is 125 miles, about ten miles beyond Oceanside the road is rough indeed. The road just beyond the county line is deep with dust and sand. It has been chipped up by heavy teaming. When the tourists heard of the road conditions each declared that California roads at their worst are boulevards compared to the desert highways they have crossed.

One of the bright spots of the ocean-to-ocean tour was the reception tendered the autoists at Brawley in the Imperial Valley. H. L. Fulton, a personal friend of F. A. Lord, met the autoists at Yuma, and piloted them over a route that took them into Brawley by New road and sent the Garford across the Imperial Valley on a route that autoists say will be chosen as the course for the national highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

BY HILDA WESTROM WHEELER.
Although this is supposed to be the winter season we have just spent the most delightful week end in the foot hills and our hikes back into the mountains prove that the canyons are now at their best, more picturesque and more beautiful than at any other time of the year.

We left Los Angeles Friday evening at nine o'clock for Altadena and from there cross country to the bungalow of a friend with whom we made our headquarters. At 11 p.m. a braying burro broke the silence of the still starlight night to announce our arrival, and being now 1400 feet above sea level the air was clear and balmy in contrast to the cold, damp air of the valley below.

The following morning, fortified by a big breakfast of "ham and eggs" and a cup of fresh mountain honey, we started on what was to be an all day hike in the big Arroyo Seco. It surely is big and inspiring, (poets and painters please take notice) the canyon in its autumn dress the luxuriant undergrowth of virgin ferns, the holly bushes heavily loaded with bright berries, the cypresses shading the river, the leaves the many other tones of

The ponies of the Pasadena team, numbering about twenty-six are in perfect condition and training. In fact, some of them are so fast and follow the ball so closely that it has become a question of horsemanship on the part of the players more than expert playing.

The members of the team are, however, superb horsemen and are perfectly able to ride their fleet mounts in the most furious of matches. The Santa Barbara team will arrive tomorrow and will spend the afternoon in practice on the Pasadena grounds. The team will be composed of Bert C. Rivers and Conley to Meet
New Year's Day.

Kilbane and Attell Where too
Backward.

Frankie Thinks Bout Step Toward Johnny.

BY GREY OLIVER.

Manager McCarrey yesterday signed Frankie Conley and Joe Rivers for a twenty round bout at the Vernon arena on New Year's Day and in this match the local fight bugs will have another opportunity to settle in their own minds the much-talked-of question as to whether Rivers is a better man than Conley.

This New Year's date is the one that was reserved for Attell and Kilbane, but they heinously and have so much without giving anyone any satisfaction that McCarrey yesterday turned them down for the present and signed Conley and Rivers.

It is doubtful if the featherweights could draw more as a money proposition than Conley and Rivers for the battle last Saturday at the Vernon arena between Conley and Rivers was the second best ever held in this end of the State, the only one ever tapping it being the Attell-Walsh battle here several years ago, and that was a night fight and held in the rain that dripped through the ceiling.

The conditions for the coming battle are the same that were in force last Saturday, which were 125 pounds at 10 o'clock in the morning. Both boys can make the weight easily and consequently neither of them will go into training until after Thanksgiving.

Rivers will take life easily for a week or ten days, but Conley intends to start the end of this week for his home in Kenosha, Wis., to visit his relatives. He has a great and abiding love for his mother, and wants to see her before he has any more battles. His wife will remain here as will Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmore.

Gilmore declared last night that his object in making the match was with the idea that Conley could beat Rivers and then get a chance at the winner of the Attell-Kilbane fight. If these two should come together in the near future, Manager Gilmore thinks his Conley can beat either Attell or Kilbane and his idea is that Rivers is just a stepping stone to a better fight.

This Rivers-Conley battle should draw a monster crowd of sports, for their recent battle aroused a high degree of excitement and caused a large amount of talk, there being so many different opinions about the winner and whether or not Wallace Epton should have called the contest a draw. Few persons see any contest alike, and the meeting last Saturday was such a close one that another is really necessary to determine which is the better man. At least, in the minds of a number of good patrons of the sport.

There was not a minute in their last battle in which they were not going to it as hard as they could, and this kind of a scrap always draws the bugs back again. There will be general satisfaction when it is known this morning that the little fellows are to clash again. It is such even matches that make the game good in this end of the State.

Manager McCarrey thought he had Jimmy Fox matched with Battling Chico for the six-round curtain raiser on Thanksgiving Day, but Fox suddenly blew out of town Tuesday night, presumably for San Francisco. It is understood that he did not fancy the purse offered him. Like a lot of other stars Jimmy thought he could come here and demand a main event on what he said he had done in some other town. Few of the sports ever heard of him.

Ed Franks, the Pomona whirlwind who made such a good showing in a prefill recently at the Vernon arena, will be put on Thanksgiving in the curtain raiser with either Tommy Lott, Jerry Hatten or Sammy Beators. Franks was knocked out in the first round on his first appearance here, but he made such a fine impression as a snappy pug that he will be welcome again.

Curley O'Connell is in New York trying to get a few matches, but does not appear to be meeting with much success. Some of the match makers back there have written him to ask what kind of a fighter he is.

Jim Flynn now weighs about 200 pounds and would like very much to get back here and fight. McCarrey can find a suitable opponent for him. It was reported yesterday that Bobbie Waugh of Dallas, Tex. will come to Los Angeles at once in hopes of getting on a match with Eddie Dennis or some other good boy from 125 to 130 pounds. Dennis will postpone his trip East since Waugh is to come West.

Gibling, the new lightweight discovered by Tom Jones in Michigan, is due here today to box with Wolgast. He is to fight the semi-final with Myers in the Thanksgiving contest, and will train at Doyle's.

PACKEY SETTLES DOWN TO REAL TRAINING.

(BY A. F. NIGHT—WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Packy McFarland settled down to real work at Colma today in preparation for his Thanksgiving Day bout with "Harmon Tommy" Murphy. The stocky fighter appears to be in good shape and won't need much training to put on an edge.

Murphy is busy in his Oakland quarters, going through the usual stunts. No referee has been selected yet, but Promoter Coffey hopes to settle that in a couple of days. Coffey is just back from Los Angeles and has high hopes of making a match between Champion Ad Wolgast and McFarland. Wolgast is considering his offer.

The proposition is a double one, with a fight with "Knockout" Brown on New Year's and the McFarland and Wolgast fight on Washington's Birthday.

Rival Fight Camps Seethe as Big Day Draws Nigh.

GLADIATORIAL GOSSIP FROM FIGHT CENTERS.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

AFTER Ad Wolgast had mauled everything in sight at Jack Doyle's yesterday afternoon for one hour and twenty-two minutes, Tom Jones, nearly bursting with pride, heaved out his bread basket and announced that the "champion" was ready to fight tomorrow. Jones was safe in making this statement, in view of the fact that Charlie Evans was nowhere in the place to hold up the waiting line, and still the main event of this boxing party.

Anyway Ad did look good. He cut out the extra yesterday and spent all his time on the handball court and going through the heavy wrestling work with Gus Anderson. In making a pivot and whirling the heavy Swede around his head like a center. This always gets the Anderson goat and he wades in for fair. When asked why he got Gus in the air Ad said:

"You see, when you get a long way's foot off the floor he ain't any better than a short feller, so me for Gus with his feet in the air." Sound reason, Ad, sound reason.

Wolgast seemed full of the real spirit yesterday and Jones will have to get the place insured if the little Swede keeps beating in. He ripped the punching bag from its place twice and had about 1000 handballs over the fence. This last phase of the afternoon's entertainment proved to be the means of beating Jones' Anderson, as the heavyweight manager had to chase all the strapping pills, and in so doing claims to have lost about one pound and fifteen ounces.

Jonas Discovers.

This Jones party is looking for a second string of champs, and yesterday announced that he had another live one under cover. The live one mentioned is a Jack Giblin, who sang around the ring at about 134 pounds net. The young man with the goblin name was matched yesterday for a ten-round semi-win-up with Joe Meyers for the turkey day affair. Jones says he can't lose, but then Jones is a great booster of the home stable.

Meyer Delivers the Nerve.

Speaking of this Meyer, he came rambling into the city under the care of his dad, who says he can lick any of them from Ad Wolgast down, and better than that, wants to put his boy in the ring for a main event fight right off the reel. The lad came from San Francisco, where he has been boxing in the amateur circles and incidentally tearing off the blocks of the many young aspirants in the lightweight class. He has such a reputation for hard hitting that his followers think it would be a pipe for him to wade into Wolgast and knock him out cold. It was probably to protect himself from this "wreck calamity" that Jones dug Giblin to beat off this young champion.

After Meyer has knocked out Giblin in one round, with one punch, we will look on him as something may be, but let's see this main event stuff fill after the show.

The Other Prelim.

The first preliminary for the big fight will be settled this afternoon. Up to the present time Kid Evans has been matched with one of the local 115-pound babies for six rounds. It is to be hoped that this Evans person has been trading with Boston of Pomona College on the side, "cause this last named party is a bear on the turning out of fire-escape, and they say the teacher that his football team is so good and has been for the last few years, is because they are sent through the training mill during the earlier part of the season. Of course, Evans is all on the Q. T., but Evans will show on the day of the fight, it would be hard to get him out of the ring arena. What say? Five is all.

One More Trial.

The excitement-heavy fans on the River got another surprise yesterday when George Hancock gave out the information that Joe Rivers and Frankie Conley would have another of their little arguments on New Year's Day.

The weights and terms of this race fight are to be the same as for the fight last Saturday afternoon. The fight Saturday was counted by many to be one of the greatest fights ever pulled off in the city and the fans were looking forward to the return match with all attention, as the average fight-follower likes a real fight and is not so strong, after all, for the River fight.

The Rivers-Conley engagements are a little more, at the present time, than just boxing contests. For the first time in his young life Joe Rivers wants to know when he is going to fight Conley again. In the past the little Mexican has left all the match-making to Conley and has never asked who he was going to fight or how good he was; now he has got a slight matter to settle with Mr. Conley and wants to get it won right away for the battle. It is all this personal element that makes the game worth while, it takes the flavor of business out of it.

Back to Freddie.

The pride of Pontypool put in a great day at Venice yesterday afternoon. In the morning he spun off nine miles over the beach, and then he loaded around the beach for a few hours till it was time to don the fighting rig for the work-out in the Auditorium.

Here, under the benign influence of Megaphone Cook, the little contender for the lightweight title, tore off nine rounds of boxing besides all the regular exercises.

The victims served up on the altar of Freddie's prowess yesterday were the Montana Kid, Louis Rose and Venice Jim. Welsh spent most of his time boring in and judging distance. Fred seems to be getting stronger every day, especially in the shoulder and when it comes to the rough stuff, he can throw his opponents around the ring like a Nelson. All primed for Ad, you see.

After the work out there was another of those famous talk tests held in the dressing room. This time Fred got to talking about punching and while talking on this subject the question of the knock-out came up.

"Everybody faces a knock-out when he enters a ring," said Welsh, "and if the fight is at all even, it don't take a hard blow to put a man in slumber land, but it has got to land just in the right spot."

"Now when a fighter gets a reputation of knocking out his men right and left, he is a man who will take a big chance with his career. To be whaling away all the time for the jaw or stomach means that the fighter has got to be hitting hard every minute. Now he may run his hand into a man's head or his elbow with the result that a bone is broken or displaced and the pugilist is on the shelf for a long time and may be for life."

It don't pay to take a chance like this when you are making your living with the hands and what they know.

"We all can knock 'em out, but for myself I would rather cut box a man, unless a good opening shows itself, than constantly run the risk of smashing my hands on some ivory skull."

The Personal Element.

This last remark about the ivory would lead one to believe that Fred thinks some of the young men in the ring today are not long on anything but the hard stuff in the ring. Fred has always said he has no heart for the whole show in the game today, but here is Ad Wolgast at the top of the ladder and he never does a thing in a fight but root four rounds with the question is finally settled all the young fighters for the next generation will be either eating steak or carrots.

You farmers better wait before putting in the fall crop. Fred would make the fight a little more than just for a mere championship; it is for an idea and for this reason is likely to be a bitter one.

Rivers Orates.

"I am not afraid of Conley or any other 125-pounder in the world," said Joe yesterday, "and I can't see where Conley got the stuff he has been handing out about me. I never said he was afraid of me or any one else and it makes me tired to hear the way he is talking out to the fans and then when they take it all in."

"I never know a thing about the boys I am going to fight, leaving all that to Conley, because he knows more in a minute about this game than I do in my whole life. What fight did I ever show the yellow?" This Conley is game, but he isn't like his claim "music," and besides there are other game boys going now, just as good as he is or ever thought of being. He better can that overall stuff and be looking for a pair that will fit him after New Year's, as if he can talk that way he can win, and maybe it will get his goat.

Levy now bawled in with a few remarks.

"These guys are all more at little Joe's level, he has the most head in his ten fights than the others have gathered in fifty. I can't help it if Joe keeps his money where it will do him good, and I can't help it if he don't run wild. This little fellow will make the money as long as he is fighting with the good boys and I can help him."

"They can talk all they want to about business for business sake, but the two boys are pals, and all through the fight the fighter Joe hangs on every word that comes out of Man-ager Joe's mouth."

WOLGAST MATCHED TO MEET WELLS IN GOTHAM.

IT IS a grand and glorious thing to be a champion fighter, for even before you get through with one match you have another one on the string. This is the way with Ad Wolgast.

He is to meet Welsh on Thanksgiving afternoon and is taking his loss easily that he did not get any real work yesterday afternoon. While he was running a short distance on the road in the morning his manager, Tom Jones, was reading a telegram from New York in which Ad was offered a fight at the Madison Athletic Club with Matt Wells for the second of third week in December.

The conditions were that the boys were to box ten rounds and the weight served upon was 132 pounds at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for a night fight. Jones would not state what Wolgast had been offered, but he added that he had accepted it, but he had wired on that expense money he sent him.

It may be possible that this proposed match will not come off, even though he has the offer Jones is willing to have Wolgast box here for McCarty any time Man can get him a suitable opponent. McCarty stated yesterday that he had not made Wolgast an offer for New Year's for the reason that he was tied up with Rivers and Conley.

Jimmy Connelly of San Francisco seems to have McFarland tied up for New Year's and it is not believed that Wolgast will be here for the new year holiday.

Jones does not know that Wolgast will meet Wells on December 15. The promoters are supposed to get Wells back from Europe if he has really gone there and unless he returns at once he would not get his record ready to fight Wolgast December 15. When asked if that weight of 132 pounds seven hours before the contest would make Wolgast weigh 125 or 130 pounds, Jones said that Wolgast did not mind it, which indicates that Wolgast has a large amount of confidence in himself.

DE WITT VAN COURT'S COLUMN.

About three hundred people attended Freddie Welsh's work out at the Auditorium at Venice yesterday. Freddie put in the hardest workout he has ever had. After his usual training work he boxed four rounds with the Montana Kid which was fast and clever. Montana is there for the clever stuff and certainly delivers the goods. He hurt his hand yesterday and did not work out up to his usual form. He gave Freddie enough speed to make him a hard nut to crack in boxing to the limit.

Freddie is there when it comes to training. He is strictly business all the time and there is no hyping introduced into his work.

He has engaged Loui Rose a clever and hard hitting lightweight to work with him from this time on. Rose is a sturdy fellow and a very hard hitter. He is built very much like Wolgast and does not hold back at all when he works.

Freddie and he put up one of the hardest and fastest workouts I have ever seen in a training quarters. It looked more like a real fight than anything I have ever seen. Freddie showed that he is in fine condition as he has just finished a spell of training and is in good condition.

Rose handed out all the rough stuff he was capable of doing and Freddie met him at every angle of the game.

If any one thinks that Ad Wolgast will have a picnic he had better take a trip to Venice and watch Welsh work.

Welsh boxed two rounds with Geo. McMann, a boatman at Venice, who weighs 125 pounds and Freddie handled him like a novice which he surely was. In the last round Freddie handed him a left hand punch on the nose and Mac stood still just as the bell rang.

I asked him what he stopped for and he said that Freddie hit him in the jaw and knocked his wind out.

Mac tore into Freddie like a sailor that was trying to kill a shark with an ear, but only succeeded in hitting the air.

Mac was willing all right, but he said that it was the first time that he ever boxed and asked if we thought he did not do pretty well for the first time. He said he never had a boxing lesson in his life; Dick Wheeler said, "You did fine my boy, you sure got a good lesson today."

As soon as the tickets for the Wolgast-Welsh fight are on sale the scalpers and ticket "moochers" will be rushing for tickets. About three hundred complimentary tickets are given out by the Pacific Athletic Club for each fight and perhaps a couple of hundred more that get by the door on a pretense or another. Out of this bunch there are not over one hundred that are in any way really entitled to complimentary tickets. It is surprising how few and what chance a ticket made up to take to get by a doorman at a fight.

I ran across the king moocher in San Francisco about fifteen years ago. It happened at the Mechanics' Pavilion during or just before a fight that took place there. The Olympic Club was giving a fight at the pavilion and had a colored janitor who always took charge of putting up the ring. In looking things over about five o'clock in the afternoon he discovered that some one had stolen the gong that

HOW AD'S CAMP LOOKED TO CARTOONIST GALE.

A CROWD of about 250 fans and a few fannies gathered around the little sideless house out in Jack Doyle's back yard yesterday to see one Adolph Wolgast go through his paces.

At 1:15 o'clock, the champ appeared accompanied by Tom Jones, whose bald dome was encased in a canary yellow hat that is about the most passionate thing in the lid line that has shocked this erstwhile peaceful burg in many a moon, and the inevitable "Dougherty" t-shirt.

The fight on the programme was a brief session in the handball court in which Ad showed us how he is always out to win by declaring the same a tie, when it stood 11 to 15 in the Dougherty's favor, and making the poor "Hobo" play a three-point game to decide it.

After a short turn at shadow boxing, the champ went through his usual showing stuff with the lanky Gus Anderson, slamming the poor Swede around until Jones called a time-out, chirp an admonitory "easy there!"

Ad then took on the jumping rope and the sandbag for a round apiece, passed the rubber ball with "Hobo" and tore off some more work that made the fans sit up and take notice, and caused one bleaker to cry-crystallize the sentiment of the bunch into the observation that "That Dutchman's back is as tough as a turtle's."

When he had finished playing was used by the time keepers. He was in a terrible stew and rushed to Bill Kennedy the big superintendent of the club and excitedly told him of the loss of the ball. Kennedy telephoned down to a hardware store for a new ball which arrived about a half an hour later. It was placed in the office and he was waiting until time for the fight to start.

It was predicted in these columns several days ago that the real reason that Baron Long and Freddie Welsh should be such-sided with hinges and bolts, was that the running bears will be extremely wide and the lamps and fenders will have the latest touches given to the motors this year. Conley says the car is one of the most stylish of the Locomobile output.

Track Claims Attention.

The Occidental Tack football team put on their war-torn for the last time this year yesterday afternoon when they appeared on the field to have their pictures taken. Immediately after posing, for the photographers, Coach Pipal started the instruction of the track candidates, as he intends getting an early start in that sport.

A great many of the men are already engaged actively in other lines of sport. Jim Smart, McNary, Bradner, Wicman and Jones are trying with the weight lifters. Kenzie, Seny, Clapp and Baer are playing basketball, and nearly all of the other men are out for something or other in the line of track.

POLY WILL PLAY L.A. HIGH TODAY.

BOVARD FIELD TO SEE EAST GRIMIRON GAME.

Several Changes Will Mark Line-ups and Double Referee System Promises to Lead Additional Zest and Fairness to Contest—Game Will be Called at Three-Thirty.

Everything is in readiness for the contest between Polytechnic and Los Angeles High School at Bovard Field this afternoon. The game is scheduled to begin at 3:30, with Mitchell and Skinner as the referees.

The experiment of using two referees at the same time will be watched closely, as it works with any degree of success. It may be used in some of the other contests. The idea is that one referee can only see one side of the field to advantage, the serum or the players gathering in the racks shut out of view. If the foul is committed on the same side as the official, it is called, but otherwise the offender usually gets away with the play.

Several slight changes in both line-ups will be tried out. Brant, who played at first five for L. A. High in the Manual Arts game, will still hold his position. Brooks going out to wing in place of Johnson. In the Polytechnic squad, Craig, who has all season been playing at breaking in the scrum, will be placed at second five, exchanging with Cheatham. Craig is very heavy and fast, and his work is expected to strengthen the back field considerably.

The following is the complete line-up:

LITTLE SIX LOCOMOBILE.

Handsome New Car, the Latest of the Series to Be Received by Local Agency in a Few Days.

Charles Colton, manager for the Los Angeles Motor Car Company, has a real surprise in store. He is ready to spring the news that a new model Locomobile six-cylinder, an addition to the 1912 line, is ready for the market and will be received here in a few days. This new car is to be one of the handsomest of the line.

The Locomobile is to be no radical departure from the line, but only a continuation of the series and will contain all the new features added to the cars this year. The finish of the body is something that should please the customer. The upholstery is to be used throughout.

The Locomobile will be turned out in four and five-passenger models. The bodies will be built with hinges and bolts. The running boards will be extremely wide and the lamps and fenders will have the latest touches given to the motors this year. Conley says the car is one of the most stylish of the Locomobile output.

FIN FROM CROWD.

purple, brown and green together with the abundance of water which ripples through the sunlight, makes a grand natural painting.

Along the crest of the Arroyo are many cozy homes occupied by Los Angeles people who prefer the diversion of their mountain retreats to the grandeur of their city mansions, making daily trips back and forth by auto.

MEET OLD TIMERS.

And then, contributing considerably to the pleasure of the trip, there are the clever people whom you meet on the way, and who gain their livelihood from the hills. The old homestead, for instance, one of the old timers of the region, whose bee ranch and instructive lecture on bees made us respect those industrious little insects more than ever.

Before descending into the canyon we encounter Frisella, the heroine of the hills, who gained her title by a daring horseback ride down the mountain side, overtaking an auto party who carelessly started a brush fire which destroyed a bee ranch and did other damage. She compelled them to return, help fight the flames and pay for the damage done.

Penetrating farther into the canyon we saw the followers of the fern and leaf mold industry clinging to the moist precipitous walls rising life and limb in order to supply the forest with these commodities of the trade, and about a mile farther up the trail we came to the government ranger's cabin.

The ranger and his wife reside in the mountains throughout the year in a comfortable cottage provided by Uncle Sam and as both are experts with the horse they live a typical out-west life and spend much time in the saddle.

BACK TO NATURE.

Before reaching Dark Canyon, where we camped for dinner, we met a pack train of a half dozen burros loaded with fruit from the distant hills, and this was the last sign of civilization before we plunged into the depths of solitude.

Preparing for dinner we cleared a space near the water, let the fire die down to coals and laid baked potatoes, broiled steaks and tea for our repast, and as we had been on the road for five hours it proved a veritable feast. Reaching for several hours, then exploring the hills, it was dark before we started on the return journey, and aided by a candle and an old tin can we debated which was the most pleasurable, the trip up or the return in the mystic shadows.

The following morning, Sunday, found us keen for a trip through Malibu Canyon to the waterfalls, a distance of only three miles, and here we passed the day of rest, leisurely returning by way of Cheney's camp, going up the horseback trail, from which height a wonderful view is obtained of the surrounding country, including the blue Pacific and Catalina.

THROUGH THE GLASS.

On this trip we saw numerous tree snails which seemed to be numerous in the vicinity of the falls, and on tracks were thick along the trail.

Returning, the fire broke proved an easy ascent to our original starting point, where a large telescope owned by our host afforded us entertainment watching the invaders of the mountains by daylight and the millions of stars by night light.

Monday at daybreak I mounted the braying burro and scoured the foothills for magnum rabbits, succeeding in bagging three without shooting the ears off my head. And then, after breakfast we wended our way homeward, content to resume the daily grind after an ideal autumn outing.

BIG SPORT EVENTS FOR FRISCO'S 1915 FAIR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The governing officials of the Amateur Athletic Union have agreed with the approval of the national committee of the organization that all the national fixtures shall be given to San Francisco in 1915 and they will be held in connection with the exposition over the Panama Canal opening.

The national track and field championships were held successfully at Portland, Or., in 1905 and at Seattle in 1909, and it is believed that eastern athletes will not object to another long journey.

BURNED TO DEATH BY ELECTRIC ROBE.

(A. P. NIGHT NEWS REPORT.)

EUGENE (Or.) Nov. 22.—Virgil Noland, a student at the University of Oregon, whose home is in Klamath Falls, Or., was burned to death today by a fire which was caused by an overheated electric bath robe. Noland was left guard on the university football team.

CRACK CALIFORNIA TEAM HAS BEEN SHATTERED.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

BERKELEY, Nov. 26.—Eight members of the Blue and Gold fifteen that won from Stanford last week will not again represent California on the football field. The great team that has beaten the Cardinals three consecutive times is no more. Capt. Elliott, Paul, Watts, Swartz, Hansen, Hardy, H. Phleger and C. Phleger, either will not be eligible next year, or will graduate in the spring and will not return to the university.

Along with these heavy losses is the announcement by Coach Schaeffer that he is done with football. He has not notified the student body formally that he will not coach next year, but it is well known that he is ready to quit. Whether he will succumb to persuasion remains to be seen. The student are anxious to have him coach at least one more year.

Among the players that the Blue and Gold has lost from among the football eligibles are several of the best players that have ever played on the Coast. Capt. Elliott was in a class by himself as a back-field star. Paul, whose home is in San Diego, is the best break-away forward that the Coast has ever developed. Watts was an exceptionally clever wing. "Cap" Phleger played in the front rank in four intercollegiate games and has been on the All-American Rugby team for three years. His brother, Herman, played for the first time this year, but he was almost as good as "Cap." Hardy and Hansen, the giant side-runners, will be surely missed. Their great strength and aggressiveness were among the most valuable assets of the California team. Swartz was not far behind Paul as a break-away.

California will have a hard time to maintain its supremacy over Stanford under these circumstances. Only by unusual happenings will a winning team be turned out next fall. It is believed that the seriousness of the situation will lead Schaeffer to return for at least one more year. Johnny Stroud, the captain-elect, is a great player and leader, and to form the nucleus of the team will have seven men who played against Stanford last week, and a good bunch of substitutes.

ROBINSON BEATS BURNHAM EASILY.

Robinson beat Burnham last night in their match at 14.5, halting at Noland's room on West Fourth street. A large and interested crowd of sports witnessed the contest. It was finished in fifty-eight innings and the score was 288 to 187.

LOOMIS BEATS DEMISEY.

PEORIA (Ill.) Nov. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack Loomis of Memphis at the end of ten rounds of boxing here tonight, Loomis used a left uppercut with telling effect. Young Schumacher, a Burlington Iowa, outclassed Young Dixon of Peoria, in four rounds in the opening exhibition.

Morley Is Easy.

T. D. Phillips beat Jim Morley badly last night in their fifty-point continuous pool game at Morley's room on Spring street, the score being 10 to 14. Morley simply could not get started and was never in the game.

Custer Victorious.

The Custer-victor school ball team defeated the Union school team yesterday on the Custer grounds by a score of 9 to 2. Dorian and Carpenter formed the battery for the winners and Wilson and Smith for the losers.

Martinez Beats Up.

Felix Martinez, formerly of the Vernon team, is now managing the Hamburger club, and is anxious to secure games.

Brush Up Diamond.

Stanford University, Nov. 21.—The Stanford baseball squad this year is engaging in full training more vigorously and consistently than any squad at the university in the memory of the present generation of students. Three times a week fifty or more men get together on the diamond and under the direction of Capt. Gillilan, "12" of Los Angeles, and "Nig" Peters, "11" and Art Shafer, "15" former big leaguers, go through the various stunts.

Gillilan says a winning team is in sight. Nine veterans of former teams will be available next semester and if Stan Mitchell, "13" returns to school, a former Santa Clara player, or W. Henshaw, of Downey, Beeger, Donovan, Ober and Childs of Riverside have played in the varsity outfield. Henshaw, Beeger and Donovan played last year and Ober and Childs the year before. Gillilan, Endler of Santa Ana, and Cass and Terry of Los Angeles, played against California last year in the infield. Gillilan, who has been varsity pitcher for three years, will probably occupy first base this year, to fill the vacancy made by the graduation of ex-Capt. Bert Hall. There are two good pitchers in sight. Endler and Van Dyke are veterans, and among the freshmen Couch, Howe and Tompkins, formerly of Los Angeles High, have good "prep" school records.

Henshaw and Schofield are trying for the catcher's position, and Freshman Check, who played with Lowell High last year, also aspires to that berth. Louis Cass again will play second base. McCloskey, a freshman from Lowell High, is trying for the place at the left-hand side. Dooling, a former Santa Clara player, or W. Argabrite of Ventura, probably will occupy third base. Terry again will play shortstop.

The Executive Committee of the student body has not yet chosen a student body has not yet chosen a coach. Peters probably will be given the berth and Shafer will assist him.

PATHETIC SIDE OF CHILD LIFE.

Suffering Tots Relieved in Children's Hospital.

Benevolent People Asked to Come to Their Aid.

Plans for New Buildings on Hollywood Hills.

From the day of its organization in 1901, the Children's Hospital Association has demonstrated its right to exist, and its ten years of humanitarian work have made it absolutely indispensable to the well-being of the unfortunate poor of the city.

When the hospital for the free treatment of poor children was opened at the corner of Alpine and Catalina streets, it was the first free hospital in Los Angeles, and after a decade of usefulness under adverse conditions, it is still the only free hospital in the city.

"Time to time. We are at the present moment much in need of blankets and pillows, but have not the means with which to purchase them. In proportion to the work we do, as compared with other cities, we should have thirteen more nurses and helpers, but as it is now, if one nurse gets sick we have no bed for her. If we put another nurse in her place."

Miss Vannier has just returned from an extended trip East, during which she visited all the larger cities between Chicago, New York and Boston, inspecting like institutions, and she is thoroughly conversant with conditions.

"The expenses of the hospital are nearly $1000 a month," she said, "and to meet this, we have $250 a month from the city, yet the municipality sends us three-fourths of our business. All the rest must come from donations, and what we should have is an endowment fund large enough to produce sufficient revenue to meet the running expenses. If we had this, we could at once go ahead with our proposed new hospital, for which the floor plans have been made, and the architects are now at work on the plans for the elevation, but we cannot build until we have the means at hand to support the greater institution. It is also our desire to have sufficient room in the new hospital, that we may accommodate a few persons of moderate means, who cannot seek the advantages of a hospital on account of the expense."

The hope to which the Children's Hospital Association looks forward is connected by arcades with the administration building, and will have accommodations for from thirty to fifty nurses, with a sleeping porch to every room.

The public ward house will be patterned after that at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, with the addition of a distinctly local feature in the way of a great sun-porch, upon which all the beds may be pushed at one time. There will also be special clinics of all kinds, and particular preparations will be made for the treatment of school children. The profligacy of porches and open-air facilities, for the comfort of patients, will be the distinctive feature of the institution.

PEOPLE WHO STAND FOR IT.

The present board of directors is as follows: President, Mrs. Albert Crutcher; vice-president, Mrs. W. T. Johnson; financial secretary, Mrs. T. E. Neulin; recording secretary, Mrs. H. E. Hollins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. D. Vial; auditor, Mrs. Charles Monroe; Mrs. J. T. Jones, Mrs. Walter J. Trask, advisory board, Dr. Norman Bridge, Dr. Stanley T. Black, Dr. L. M. Powers.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Congested Streets.
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 21.—(To the Editor of "The Times.") Kindly permit a stranger to give a little emphasis to the discussion now so timely—leaving the present congestion on our business streets. I am only a month-old citizen of this metropolis, but in that brief period I have found reason for complaint. Coming in from Pasadena recently, I intent on transfer at Sixth street to another line the "slow up" was so great after reaching Second street that I look to the side walk and walked to the intersection, only to find that my desired car was as much delayed in getting out as the other had been coming in.

Now if such things are possible in the green tree what will be our fate in the "dry"? (No reference here to the ordinary latter day meaning of the word—"dry.") He can lay no claim to being a prophet—who does not see—in the near future a city of millions, compact in construction and marvelous in prosperity, extending from the foothills north of Pasadena to a sweeping circle to coast—west and south; and this raises a serious problem—how are you going to handle the people then, if so handicapped in doing it now?

Little Patients in the Children's Hospital.

city, and the only children's hospital south of San Francisco.

It is difficult to conceive a more unselfish and benevolent devotion to the welfare of unfortunate children, than is shown for the sake of humanity by the people who maintain this most praiseworthy institution. A large number of men and women of Los Angeles give freely of their time and money, without hope of reward, other than the satisfaction that comes as a recompense for deeds well done.

It is a reflection on the progressive spirit of Los Angeles, that the work best be pursued under adverse conditions, and at the expense of self-sacrifice on the part of many, while others who might easily give of their means to its support, probably have not had their attention called to it in such a way as to awaken a feeling of the great need.

A visit to the hospital would afford an object-lesson that would certainly show the need, and just as certainly impress it upon the beholder. "Look at these children," says the superintendent, "these little children, from the infant babe to those 10 years or so of age; they are suffering from many complaints and deformities, and except for the Children's Hospital must live without hope of relief and die in poverty and suffering."

But even these pathetic little sufferers, it may be said, do not voice the loudest claim upon the benevolent people of the city, for they are but a handful. The capacity of the hospital is not equal to the demands of a single month. From November 1, 1916, to November 1, 1917, 592 bed-cases were treated, and from May 1, 1911, to date, the physicians and nurses have treated 341 out-patients—that is, by going to their homes. Since the opening of the hospital in September, they have operated on seventy-nine cases for the removal of adenoids and diseased tonsils, and a vast number more were treated during the vacation.

The administration during the month of October were fifty-five, divided as follows: Sent by the social service workers: 1; College clinics; 2; Juvenile court; 3; public school inspectors; 24; city district nurses; 6; Children's Home-finding Society; 1; Catholic Orphanage; 2; outside physicians; 4; hospital staff; 4; came voluntarily; 9. The number of days treatment for the month was 1112. The treatment of out-patients has averaged 135 per month.

From this report it will be seen that almost every agency in the city takes advantage of the institution to their treatment for the little ones found among the poor in every quarter. Others, not mentioned in last month's report, but which frequently and patients are the Humane Society, Housing Commission, Receiving Hospital, Crittenton Home, and many outside towns. Santa Barbara, Pomona, Long Beach and Ojai are well represented as well as Arizona. Said Miss Marion L. Vannier, yesterday, in answer to an inquiry:

THE URGENT NEED.

The great need at this moment, is the support of the whole city and the surrounding towns as we are handicapped by lack of space and lack of equipment. This is the only free hospital in Los Angeles and the only children's hospital south of San Francisco, and the people of this part of the State should come promptly and loyally to its support, as they practically all have patients here from the creation of a modern, up-to-date hospital at the junction of Sunset boulevard and Vermont avenue. At this delightful location they own four acres of land and have practically sufficient money to build the hospital, but according to the superintendent, they will not go on with the work until the endowment fund is sufficient to meet the running expenses. The administration building is to be three and one-half stories in height, the top floor to be the operating department. The ground plan for this building, including the great public lobby, with which it is connected by a bridge, has a frontage of about 250 feet on each of the streets. On the opposite side of the court-yard will be located the isolation building and the nurses' house, the latter also only requirement for admission being the suffering of the little one offered at its doors. It is admitted up to 14 years of age and boys to the age of 12, upon the recommendation of any reputable physician. There are accommodations for forty patients, all told, and four beds are devoted to spinal diseases. Although everything is free, and no questions asked, compensation will be received from those able to pay.

Annual membership in the association costs $5 a year; beds may be named for a subscription of $250, with an additional annual payment of $25 for its support; beds may be perpetually endowed for a gift of $5000. A strong plea is made at this time for generous people to come forward to its support. The demand upon it has increased so rapidly that it has been impossible to anything like keep pace with the growth of the city and its
